PICK BADGERS FOR WINNERS

Varsity Crew in Fine Condition for Race This Afternoon.

O'DEA IS HOPEFUL

The Struggle at Poughkeepsie Lies Between Wisconsin, Columbia and Cornell.

BIG CROWDS ATTEND

Schedule of university boat races at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., today; University four-oar, Pennsylvania, Cornell and Columbia; two miles; start at 3 o'clock. Freshmen's eight-oar, Pennsylvania, Cornell, Columbia and Syracuse; two miles; start at 3:45. University eight-oar, Wisconsin, Columbia, Cornell, Pennsylvania, Syracuse and George town; four miles; start at 5.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., July 2.—Exceptionally hot weather greeted the college oarsmen who will engage in today's aquatic sports here. There was not as much betting as usual around the hotels this morning. A few bets of fifty to forty were made. Cornell and Columbia against Wisconsin was the rule.

It is estimated that at least 50,000 people are lined along the course to see the race.

Prospects for Close Race Poughkeepsie, N. Y., July 2.—Columbia, Wisconsin or Cornell, which will it be?

That is the question that the throng of young and old college men, undergraduates and alumni, are asking of each other about the hotel's and cafes here this morning. It is the problem of the great intercollegiate regatta to be rowed on the famous Poughkeepsie course this afternoon, and the uncertainty of the result and the impossibility of choosing any one of the three crews named for a favorite is accepted as a forecast for a very close race, perhaps the most exciting ever witnessed.

Wisconsin Crew Shows Power While the general opinion prevails that the race will be between, Cornell, Wisconsin and Columbia, and that no crew will have a walk over, those men who have watched all of the crews at practice since they came here, the opinion that Wisconsin has a shade the best of it. They point to the fact that four of the greatest freshmen crew of last year are in the eight, and that, while the form of the crew may be ragged and unhandsome, there is certainly tremendous power in its every stroke.

O'Dea Confident of Victory "The boys undoubtedly arrived in Poughkeepsie very tired and weary after their trip. Since we have been here the temperature has been away up the nineties, hence it is impossible to give them any strong work. By a little careful nursing the crew is on the eve of their contest in splendid condition, and they all feel confident that the crew that beats them will win. We go in the race decidedly hopeful, and if we are beaten, will have no excuse to offer," said Coach O'Dea.

King Enthusiastic Over Crew. Phil King, long to be remembered as one of the greatest full-back players ever produced by Princeton, who is now coaching the Wisconsin football eleven, has come on to Poughkeepsie to see, as he believes, a Badger crew win its first victory on the Hudson. "I expect to see Wisconsin first in the finish," said King this morning. "This crew is two seconds faster than the one sent east last year. The crew that beats the boys from Madison will have to be composed of phenomenal oarsmen."

P. B. WINSTON DIES OF HEART TROUBLE Minneapolis Railroad Contractor Is Taken Sick on a Train Near Chicago and Passes Away. Chicago, July 2.—P. B. Winston, senior member of the firm of Winston Brothers, Mich., railroad construction contractors, was taken sick on the train coming to Chicago yesterday morning and removed to the Augustana hospital.

A half hour after the arrival at the hospital Mr. Winston died of heart failure. His body was removed to his former home in Minneapolis last night in a special car attached to a regular train.

Mr. Winston was born in Virginia in 1844. From 1888 to 1890 he was mayor of Minneapolis. All of his life he was a prominent figure in democratic politics, and at the Kansas City convention at which Mr. Bryan was nominated he was a delegate at large from his state.

The firm of which Mr. Winston was the directing head has constructed millions of dollars' worth of railroad work all over the state, and he came to Chicago to look after work being done by his firm for the Chicago and Northwestern railroad from Nelson to Peoria in Illinois and from Princeton to Harshfield, Wis. They also built the Janesville & Southeastern.

HEAT DAMAGES TOBACCO

Loss of Fully $300,000 Believed to Have Been Sustained by Farmers

Madison, Wis., July 2.—Tobacco hereabouts has been damaged to the extent of over $300,000 by the hot weather, and unless there is a very late fall to permit the maturing of the replanted crop a much heavier loss will result. About Madison no good rain has fallen for a long time but in Vernon and Crawford counties there was a drenching shower on Wednesday. As Dane and Rock counties produce a third of the crop in the state a serious shortage there will probably result in an advance of price. If the estimates that one-fourth the crop has been destroyed the loss will aggregate over $300,000.

NIAGARA BANK AT BUFFALO IS CLOSED

Buffalo, N. Y., July 2.—The Niagara bank was closed this morning by order of the state inspector.

The closing of the bank is but a sequel to the closing of the City National yesterday. It is believed that none of the depositors will lose anything. There was quite a crowd of depositors at the door when the inspector ordered the bank closed but when the conditions were explained they disappeared in an orderly manner.

PREACHED SERMON IN SHIRT WAIST

Young Kansas Minister Sets Example, and Men in Congregation All Remove Coats.

Topeka, Kan., July 2.—The Rev. J. O. Thomas, a young clergymen just out of an eastern college, preached a sermon in a shirt waist at Garwood, Kas., on Sunday. When he appeared in the pulpit of the Methodist church the congregation was amazed. The young people soon recovered and tittered. The elders gave the minister a stern look of disapproval. Finally an old man, a pillar of the church, rose and deliberately removed his coat. This was a signal for a general removal of coats, and in five minutes every man in his shirt sleeves. The "shirt waist sermon" created a sensation in Garwood.

FEW COUNTERFEIT NOTES ARE PASSED

Annual Report of Chief Wilkie of Uncle Sam's Secret Service Department.

Washington, D. C., July 2.—The annual report of Chief Wilkie of the secret service division, treasury department, submitted to Secretary Gage today, indicated that this had been the most successful year in the history of the division. During the twelve months ending on June 30, 1901, there were placed in circulation only four new counterfeit notes against an average of about ten for each year during the preceding years.

Only one of these notes was at all dangerous the others being the product of unskilled workmanship.

The total amount of counterfeit currency which came into the possession of the division during the year amounted to $30,056, while $18,117 in counterfeit coin was confiscated.

Coin counterfeiting decreased all over the country, except in New York City and vicinity, where there has been a gradual increase in this class of crime, particularly cases in which genuine silver forms the basis of the imitations.

The arrests for twelve months show a total of 594. Of these 410 were for manufacturing, passing, and having in possession counterfeit coin. Of the persons arrested 262 were convicted, 146 are awaiting the action of the courts, one committed suicide while awaiting trial, and fifty-five were acquitted.

MANY AT SUMMER SCHOOL

Registration at State University Shows Increase of 20 Per cent.

Madison, July 2.—The summer session of the university opened yesterday with an increase registration so far, of about 20 per cent over that for the same time last year. The registrar was not able to give definite figures but he thought that the total registration for the first day was about 250. Enrollment will continue today and, in fact, until after July 4, when the real work will begin. The new school for machinists and artisans had a registration of about fifty today.

AT WAR OVER SUNDAY GOLF

Blue Law Agitation Spreads to La Crosse and Sermons are Preached

La Crosse, Wis., July 2.—To play golf on Sunday, or not to play?" That is the question that is agitating the local enthusiasts over the ancient game.

The ministers have begun to take up the question and the blue law spirit is spreading to the fishermen.

There is a lively war in prospect soon over the observance of the Sabbath.

In some cases the wives of golfers have taken up the question, and one is said to have announced that unless her husband reformed and left his caddy bag securely in his locker on the Sabbath she would retaliate by donning his rubber boots and making use of his rod and reel in some of the trout streams of his locality.

SANE IN ASYLUMS

Case Involving Personal Liberty on Trial in Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 2.—In the Superior court, before Judge Leathers there is being tried to-day a case which involves not so much the liberty of a man now confined in an insane asylum as the truth of the charge that a clique of physicians, justices of the peace, and minor officials has been accusing sane men and women of being insane, and at times sending them to an asylum for the money paid by the state as fees. Even when the persons were found to be sane the clique secured fees for holding the inquiries.

The case being tried to-day and which has proved the culmination of a long line of suspicions and charges, is that of John Ross, a workman in the employ of Kingman & Co., who came here from Chicago last November and whose mother now lives in that city. Ross recently was convicted of being insane, without any trial at which he was present, and sent to the State asylum here.

Visitors at Niagara Falls.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., July 2.—A party of English tourists had a frightful experience at Table Rock, on the Canadian side. In the party were A. J. Leach of Lancaster, England, Miss Leach, Miss Fisher, and others, together with three Canadian friends who had joined them in the celebration of Dominion day. The members of the party had descended the elevator, intending to walk along a path on the debris slope to a tunnel which would allow access behind a portion of the Horseshoe Falls, when a great mass of shale rock broke away from the cliff and plunged upon them. All were injured. The index finger of Mr. Leach's left hand was nearly amputated by sharp rocks, while others received severe scalp wounds and bodily injuries, none of them serious.

MERCURY STILL ON A JAMBOREE

New York. Roasting, Sizzling and Dying in the Hot Wave.

I47 HEAT DEATHS

Suffering in the crowded tenement districts is said to be dreadful.

NO RELIEF IN SIGHT

New York, July 2.—The jamboree of mercury is still on here with no prospect for relief in sight for at least for forty-eight hours. During the night twenty-three persons succumbed to the heat. Hundreds of cases of prostration are reported. Since June 27, one hundred and forty-seven heat deaths are reported. The mercury at nine o'clock this morning was ninety-four degrees as against eighty-eight the same hour yesterday.

Passed a Horrible Night

Last night was one of misery for everyone. The dwellers in Fifth avenue mansions and tenements were suffering alike. Thousands spent the night on doorsteps and roofs, on fire escapes, in the parks and along the beach. Before the sun was up this morning the beach was fairly black with bathers. Hundreds of dead horses, victims of yesterday's heat, lie strewn about on every hand today. The asphalt pavements are as soft as dough.

Mercury 97 at Noon

The terrific heat increased as the morning advanced. The official thermometer showed 97 at noon while on the streets the mercury went up to one hundred and eight. Men, women and children are dropping like flies throughout Greater New York. The prostrations are running up to the hundreds.

Suffering Among Tenements

The suffering in this city particularly in the crowded tenement house districts, was most intense. As the day grew, the deaths and prostrations increased, and, although provision was made in the hospitals for this emergency, the authorities were scarcely able to cope with the great tax made on their resources.

There were so many ambulance calls that the police were called upon to supply patrol wagons, and every ambulance did double duty in responding to calls.

Many Patients were Carried to Hospitals in Cabs and Carriages and Several Went to Bellevue and the Hospital in Moving Vans.

Horses Drop in Harness

If the heat was killing on mankind it was worse on the horses. They dropped right and left. At one time there were eight dead horses lying on Broadway between Twenty-third street and Forty-second street. There were fourteen horses prostrated in the vicinity of the Madison square alone.

The rush of the crowds to the parks and to the nearby sea shore resorts this morning was unprecedented in the history of the city.

Six Deaths at St. Louis

14 Dead in Philadelphia

Washington, July 2.—The weather bureau issued the following bulletin this morning:

"There is no present indications of a permanent break in the warm weather which covers the country generally east of the Rockies."

Phoenix, Ariz., was the hottest city in the country yesterday, the thermometer there reaching 104 degrees maximum.

CHAMPIONSHIP OF THE STATE

Great Wrestling Match at the Fair Grounds July Fourth.

At the Scottish games to be held at the fair grounds on the afternoon of July 4 under the auspices of the Rock County Caledonian society, a special event alone worth the price of admission will be the wrestling match arranged between Reinhold Schott and Robert Menhauser, who will contest for the state championship and a purse of $250. This event will be stubbornly fought from the start. Both men have been in training for some time, and each will be accompanied by a large following of friends. This wrestling match is only one of numerous excellent athletic events scheduled for the afternoon.

HOTTER DAY THAN THIS AT EL CANEY

Three Years Ago Robert B. Kanouse Stood Under the Steady Fire of Leaden Bullets.

While wilted, dejected and perspiring mortals assured themselves and each other over and over yesterday morning that it was the hottest day yet and "the worst that ever happened" there was at least one man in Janesville in whose mind memories of a hotter day were very distinct.

That man was Robert B. Kanouse who three years ago yesterday stood under the steady fire of leaden bullets at El Caney and did well his part in bringing Uncle Sam's difficulty with Spain to a speedy and triumphant close in Cuba.

Mr. Kanouse was a member of the Twentieth United States regulars and was in the thick of the fight. He is quite reticent about his experiences and few of his friends here are aware of the fact that one of the heroes of El Caney has been making his home in Janesville for several weeks.

Yesterday being the anniversary of the day when he dodged Spanish bullets and sent a few of the leaden missiles whizzing on their deadly mission on his own account, he was somewhat inclined to think of the fatal day three years ago. "Yes, this is not enough to suit me," he said, "but I was in a hotter place than ever before last evening."

Mrs. Bond's work was a surprise to her most expectant friends. The secret of its charm was told in the poem which opened her program, "Talkin' About Little Things." The touching little things of life which most people pass unheeding by are the things which appeal to Carrie Jacobs Bond and she brings them out so that they appeal to other people. She is brim full of sentiment and all her little songs and poems, all her piano numbers and piano accompaniments have a heart story which she tells to her audience, thus giving an added and inexpressibly charming interest to the music. She speaks directly to the heart and her vibrant voice with its peculiarly sympathetic note and its magnetic power searches out the unusual corners and sets chords of sympathy and sentiment which are seldom touched by this practical life, thrilling with feeling. Her work is original, far different from that of any other entertainer and it is soul-reaching in its art.

Versatile she is too and whether in the odd stories in which "her old man in blue jeans with his thirteen children and his Mary Ann" tells wholesome truths and beautiful thoughts in his homely way, in the dainty bits of song in which the music seems to tell the story and one is scarcely conscious of the singer's voice, or in the brilliant piano solos, she is equally charming. She is unassuming, the perfection of naturalness with her gleaming smile and the curious little catch in her voice, and, above all she is in perfect sympathy with her music, she knows what it means and she makes other people know. It is a part of herself.

It will be with sincere regret therefore, that his friends will learn of his intended departure from the city. Mr. Kanouse has severed his connection with the Grove-Barnes company and has accepted a better position at a much larger salary with Bush & Gerts of Chicago. This firm has just completed a very fine Temple of Music at the corner of North Clark street and Chicago avenue and have established a retail department for which Mr. Kanouse will be traveling salesman.

His removal from the city will in no way interfere with the interests of the Grove-Barnes company whose agency will be continued at S. C. Burnham & Co's. Mr. Kanouse having been sent here only temporarily. Mr. Kanouse has also signified his willingness to return to his work in the Presbyterian choir for a few Sundays until arrangements can be made for a new director.

Mr. Kanouse is to be congratulated on his promotion. The territory to which his new duties will take him will be the country immediately surrounding Chicago and he will make his headquarters in that city. He is a thorough musician, a hustling business man and deserves success.

JOHN KELLY'S STRING

Horses Driven by the Janesville Jockey Are in Fine Shape for Season's Work.

A number of gentlemen from this city who are interested in harness horse races are thinking of attending the meeting of the Detroit Driving club, which opens July 15th.

The 2:24 trot, known as the Merchants' and Manufacturers' and worth $10,000, will be trotted July 16th. Quoddy Girl, John Kelly's M. & M. candidate, has been a mile in 2:12½ in her work. It is more than likely that time would have won a heat in the first great event of the year.

Another of his string, Charley Herr, has been a quarter in 31 seconds, a 2:04 gait. He can't be very much off this spring.

They say that one of the best two-year-olds at Lexington is a filly by Larable (3) (2:12¾), out of Rosey Posey, by Baron Posey, that's in John Kelly's string. She recently worked an easy mile in 2:34.

Mr. Kelly was in the city over Sunday, visiting his wife and daughter, on his way to Detroit. He feels confident that he will be able to get his share of the money at the big meeting.

CARRIE JACOBS BOND

Quaint Entertainment Given at Christ Church Parish House Last Evening—Reception Followed.

A deliciously quaint entertainment was given at the Christ church parish house last evening by Mrs. Carrie Jacobs Bond, the celebrated song writer of Chicago, who clings with tender sentiment to Janesville as her former home and whom this city is delighted and proud to claim as a Janesville woman. Mrs. Bond has given her unique programs in prominent cities throughout the middle west for years and she has returned from an extended visit in the East where she was accorded a reception by the leading people in the various artistic and literary circles that must ever be a source of gratification to her and her many friends.

Last evening for the first time Mrs. Bond gave one of her programs before a Janesville audience and it is to be regretted that her first appearance was made in such unfortunate weather when it is almost impossible to tempt people from the seclusion of their own homes. While the audience which assembled at the parish house was not as large as might have been wished, it was a representative and appreciative one.

Many of those present were personal friends of Mrs. Bond and in greeting them she acknowledged prettier than in appearing before home folks who had known her ever since she was a little girl. She found a new and difficult though pleasant experience. There had been many times when she had felt as if her heart was doing double action but she thought it was going a little faster than ever before last evening.

Mrs. Bond's work was a surprise to her most expectant friends. The secret of its charm was told in the poem which opened her program, "Talkin' About Little Things." The touching little things of life which most people pass unheeding by are the things which appeal to Carrie Jacobs Bond and she brings them out so that they appeal to other people. PROMISES FOR THE EVANSVILLE FAIR

The Association Has Reorganized, and New and Suitable Buildings Will Be Erected.

During a severe storm Friday night a large building on the fair grounds at Evansville was blown down. The building was over eighty feet in length and had just been completed by the Evansville Rock County Fair association. The structure cost about $600 and was to have been used for the coming fair next fall. It will probably be rebuilt at once.

The Evansville Rock County Agricultural Association will hold its third annual fair at Evansville Sept. 3, 4 and 5. The association expects to make the fair the best one ever held in Evansville and one of the best in the state. The association has reorganized with capital stock of $50,000, for the express purpose of erecting suitable buildings, including fine art buildings, agricultural buildings, horse and cattle stalls, sheep and hog pens, also large amphitheater. The Iowa Carnival Co., traveling in their own special car, making only the large fairs in Wisconsin and Illinois, has been engaged at large expense. This means that the best special features of attraction now traveling. These features will be interspersed with the race program.

Newport, R. I., July 2.—The Constitution sailed her first race, and the old champion of 1899, the Columbia, was her competitor. The race was sailed in a wind that at the start was rather light, but toward the end of the race it freshened considerably. It was a beat to windward and return, and the Columbia won by forty-eight seconds on elapsed time.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Dyspeptics cannot regain health and strength by living upon half rations. They must eat plenty of good food and digest it. To enable them to do this they should use something that will help the stomach do its work. KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE is such a preparation. It digests what you eat and supplies the substances needed to build up the worn out digestive organs.

Prof. J. Ivison, of Lonaconing, Md., says: "For thirteen years I suffered agony from dyspepsia and neuralgia of the stomach. I tried almost everything and doctors drugged me nearly to death with morphine, but temporary relief was all I could obtain till I was advised to use KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE. The first dose gave me relief. I bought my first bottle in March, 1900, and I have not had a single pain since. It has completely cured me. I cannot endorse it too highly."

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST

Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday.

PROFESSOR A. J. HUTTON.

There are many good things that might be said of Professor Hutton of the Whitewater Normal, the gentleman who is considering an offer recently made him by the State Board of Control, of the superintendence of the State School for the Blind.

Mr. Hutton is fifty-five years old, and is therefore a man of experience. He has been a school master all his life and enjoys an enviable reputation as a literary instructor.

He possesses a well stored mind, and the ability to tell what he knows. Better than all, he carries around with him a warm heart that beats in sympathy with child life, and he enjoys the companionship of a wife that is a mother in every sense of the word.

Should he accept the position the state may be assured of a clean and wholesome administration. His work will be entirely different from any in which he has been engaged. If it were possible for the blind to secure schools he could thoroughly prepare a small percentage of them to teach, for this would be along the line of his regular work. If the school were preparing its graduates for the college or university, he would be at home with about twenty per cent. of the attendance, which is about the number that graduate from a literary course, but with rare exception this is the end of their literary work.

What to do with them, as well as the eighty per cent. that never graduate, is a problem that will tax the professor's brain, as it has the brain of every superintendent engaged in similar work. He may be equal to the occasion if he has time to work out the problem. It will come to him with tremendous force as he becomes absorbed in the work, that the ability to earn an honest dollar, and independence, is worth more to the blind than any other accomplishment, and that to do this, their education must be intensely practical.

What is bothering the professor was expressed by him in a recent interview with his predecessor. He said in substance: There don't seem to be much certainty about the tenure of office, and that while he had always been an admirer and supporter of Governor La Follette, and helped him out in the last campaign, that it wasn't quite clear to him how long he would be in the executive chair.

He appeared to realize that the Board of Control, as well as the governor, were "up in the air," and that there was absolutely no certainty about anything in this world but death and taxes.

The professor was assured that the board was making this move to "take the school out of politics," but it didn't seem to strike him that way. He said he had a good position now, that he would want to consider carefully before throwing it up for an uncertainty.

If the school demands a trained literary educator the board will make no mistake in securing Prof. Hutton.

THE SHIRT WAIST IN CHURCH.

St. Louis and Decatur have practical men in some of their pulpits. Sunday two pastors and many hearers appeared in both church services without coats, and yet the hotels have tabooed such customs.

The question of propriety ought to hinge solely upon the question of comfort. Because our ancestors for many generations have worn the coat in church is no reason for their descendants doing so, any more than the prevalence of crinolines in the past is a reason for them today.

If a pastor is dressed so conspicuously as to attract the attention of the audience from the sermon to himself, then he is not dressed appropriately, but if he asks his congregation to join him in making themselves as comfortable as possible, he shows his common sense in his regard for the comfort of others, and incidentally increases his congregation.

A man is well dressed these days when he appears in a clean, cool attire, modest in trimming and color. Ministers are human beings and their feelings should be respected in the same way.

SMASH THE MASHER.

Saturday evening several ladies were accosted on Milwaukee street by groups of young men who make it a business to ogle women on the streets.

There are certain corners which are always avoided by the self-respecting lady, because of the presence of loafers who delight in making indecent remarks to or about passing girls and young ladies.

The police ought not have any consideration for such fellows; they seem to take keen pleasure in wounding the feelings of passing ladies, and the police will do a kindness by injuring the physical feelings of these ruffians.

In other words the masher ought to be arrested or given a dose of club juice so that the evidence will remain for future reference. The merchants will second any action by the police that will make it safe for pedestrians to pass their places of business without fear of being accosted or insulted.

THE SCHOOL FOR DEAF.

The most sensible thing the governor can do is to instruct his board to re-appoint Supt. Swiler at Delavan. He is by far and away the best man in the state for the position, is not a politician, and there is absolutely nothing against him. The Milwaukee News was the only paper in the state that was contemptible enough to attempt to blackmail his character, and the effort failed so flat that it was a disgrace to the men who started the story.

Mr. Swiler is recognized throughout the United States as one of the best educators of the deaf. His lack of sympathy with the day school system is based on experience and common sense. The state spent $30,000 last year on this fad, that was money worse than wasted. Every last one of these day school scholars will be found in the state school within the next ten years, if they are taught anything that is useful.

The deaf deserve better treatment at the hands of the state than a smattering of books, and a stammering of speech that the day schools attempt to furnish. They can secure better instruction of this class at the state school, and with it an educated hand, and some useful trade that will enable them to become self-supporting and self respecting citizens.

Mr. Swiler should be retained at the State School, and the governor is making a mistake if he puts him out. The deaf are entitled to some consideration in the matter.

TROUBLE FOR THE MAIL MAN.

Undoubtedly the rural mail delivery system is a great benefit to the farming community, but the efforts of the carriers to add to their salaries may soon get them into trouble and the system into disrepute.

Several carriers are acting as agents for such large city wholesale houses as Montgomery, Ward & Co., and others are charged with delivering liquor in prohibition districts. The small merchant will fight the rural delivery system if it affects his trade seriously, and the W. C. T. U. can be counted on to make things lively for the mail man who delivers spirituous liquors to the farmer. The mail men should be paid well enough for their work so that it would not be necessary for them to carry on a side line business.

They are defeating their chances of promotion, and the farmers are hazarding the existence of the delivery by these practices.

Who is M. T. Parks and what is his record? He is superintendent of the home for dependent children at Sparta and editor of a country weekly in Walworth county. He was a Madison pap sucker under Secretary Timme for a number of years, and had wind on the stomach forever after, until he got another job. He is not dangerous but is a good runner when headed towards the loaded wagon.

The primary law fad was not a howling success as a reform measure. The worthy chief executive discovered that he could not compel legislators with good horse sense to bow when he sneezed. With the state institutions the case is different. The governor is at liberty to reform them to his hearts content, with nothing to interfere but a Board of Control and they are not interfering to any large extent.

Dr. Reid, in an article in the Forum, justifies the looting in China as a necessary concomitant of war. The trouble in Pekin was that looting was indulged in more by the Boxers and individuals than by the army for its needs. And this kind of practice is never justifiable except to prolong life.

The street car company should be given a tip that another sad accident may result while the public are waiting for those street car fenders. It is not necessary for the company to make experiments. There are a number of fenders in daily use in Chicago, any one of which could be procured inside of a week after placing the order.

It is well for the half breed press of the state to consider the renomination of Hon. John C. Spooner. With the primary law snowed under there is no combination that can beat him. There is no conciliation about this, but a plain statement of the cold fact. Mr. Spooner will succeed himself if he so desires.

Trenton, Mo., has a peculiar college where the students are asked to pay $125 for the privilege of working their way through college. No wonder Dr. Geo. Herron's name appears as an instructor.

Winona Assembly Is Open.

Warsaw, Ind., July 2.—The regular program for the season has opened at Winona assembly. The program covers a period of fifty-nine days and lecturers from all over the United States and Europe will appear. DeWitt Miller of Cleveland, O., was the first to speak this season. In the Auditorium he lectured on "The Uses of Ugliness."

TO ENLARGE STONE CRUSHING PLANT

The Cost of Rebuilding the City Plant

Will be in the Neighborhood of $2,000.

John Taggart of Chicago, superintendent for the F. C. Austin Company of Hervey, Ill., arrived in the city last evening for the purpose of supervising the rebuilding of the stone crushing plant. Mr. Taggart went out to the quarry this morning and looked over the ruins of the plant. He said that the engine and boiler are all right and the stone crusher is not much injured. The greatest loss was the bins in which the crushed stone is stored.

Mr. Taggart has the plans of the old plant and thinks that the capacity of the bins can be almost doubled when rebuilt at a very little expense. The timbers in the old bin were entirely too heavy for the amount of weight that they had to carry, and the size will be cut down considerably. This will not only be a saving in cost but a saving of space.

One of the great drawbacks to the old plant was the lack of storage room for the crushed stone. If anything happened at he works so that they could not run for half a day the street contractors were out of stone. The new bins will be large enough to store enough stone to keep the contractors going for a day or two.

The timber for the plant has already been ordered and will be here in a day or two. As soon as it arrives the work on the bins will be rushed to completion. The engine and boiler room will be rebuilt this time with an idea of making it as nearly fire proof as possible. It will be a framework of two by four's covered with iron.

The crushing machine will also be moved further out into the quarry and away from the bins. This will give the men more room to work in and make it much more convenient for all.

Mr. Taggart estimates that the cost of rebuilding the plant will be in the neighborhood of $2,000 and that it can be completed inside of two weeks. Time is a very valuable consideration just at present as the streets under contract to be improved are in bad shape.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

Five Alleged Americans Arrested.

Peking, July 2.—Five men calling themselves Americans were captured by Chinese troops in a town 500 miles from Peking, and were to-day turned over to Major E. Robertson, commander of the United States Legation guard here. The men, who were armed, demanded 5,000 taels from the keeper of a pawnshop and got 500. They filled five carts with plunder and then began shooting, not knowing that the town was occupied by 100 Chinese troops. The United States legation was notified and the quintet was brought in.

Small Revolt in Mexico.

San Francisco, July 2.—According to the Chilean steamer Tucapal, which arrived here, there is a small revolution in the state of Guerrero, Mexico. The rebellion was fomented during the recent illness of President Porfirio Diaz. Although the principal men in it have been arrested the country in the vicinity where the trouble occurred is still under martial law.

In Virginia's Convention.

Richmond, Va., July 2.—In the constitutional convention here Mr. Pollard introduced a resolution to strike out the word "Christian" from the Bill of rights, making it read as follows: "That religion, or the duty which we owe to our God, and the manner of discharging it, can be directed only by reason, and not by force or violence, and, therefore, all men are equally entitled to the dictates of conscience, and that it is the mutual duty of all to practice forbearance, love, and charity toward each other."

"Christianity," Mr. Pollard said, "needs no special recognition by law. It can live and grow without it. I am unwilling that our fundamental law should contain a single word which to a large class of our citizens, has a sectarian meaning."

IT KEEPS GETTING HOT AND HOTTERTEN DAYS OF 98 IN THE SHADE TIRES MEN'S BODIES.

Effect of the Present Hot Spell Can Be Seen on Every Hand—Rain is Needed for Human Comfort and Fast Dying Crops in the Fields and Gardens.

This weather may suit the ice man, the ice cream vender and the man who owns a soda water fountain. It may cause the laundry man to chuckle with delight as he notices the wilted collars and the delapidated looking shirt waists and shirts go up and down the streets in multitudinous numbers.

The continued and excessive heat may even be a source of delight to the barber who rubs his hands in glee as he sees a new crop of whiskers fairly leap forth, encouraged by the irrigation of perspiration, from the face of his victim almost before the razor has left it. These things may all be true and without doubt they are but for all this you can scarcely expect in a country whose motto is "the greatest good for the greatest number," that everyone joins the dispenser of cooling refreshment, the renewer of crisp cleanliness to collars and shirts and the preserver of smooth faces on mankind in their jubilation.

Ten days of this 98 in the shade with only a brief breathing spell last Saturday, is enough to try men's souls and women's tempers. Those who can have fled to the lake shore or the up-river camp, but the common run of humanity must continue to earn a livelihood in the good old Scriptural way, "by the sweat of thy brow." The effect of the heat is seen on every hand.

Everyone walks in a listless manner with dragging steps and the man or woman who would walk up Milwaukee street alertly and energetically would be a curiosity. The heat and the close, oppressive, murky vitality and strength atmosphere have sapped everyone's strength and vitality and unless there is a let up very soon there are apt to be many prostrations.

Rain is needed badly, not only for human comfort, but for all kinds of growing things. Vegetation is being literally burned up. Potato vines are scorched to death and one grower says that if he harvests any potatoes he fully expects that they will be baked ready for the table. There is a strip of country five farms wide east of the city that hasn't had a bit of rain this summer. The rain has traveled in strips each side of this belt.

Hot weather stories can be heard on every hand and the man who fried an egg in the sun finds a rival in the one who put an egg out in the sun and shelled it in a few minutes to find that it had been thoroughly baked.

Everyone is inclined to think that he has the worst of it this kind of weather, but there is one force of workmen that no one envies. They are the men who are at work on the top of the Jackman block.

MAURICE W. SMITH WINS A $10 PEN

About a month before the close of school the Parker Pen Company offered two prizes for the best essays on "Why People Should Use the George S. Parker Lucky Curve Pen," the essays to be written by High school students. A large number of students entered the competition and the essays were submitted to a prominent magazine editor, of Chicago, who acted in company with the members of the local firm as judges.

As a result of their decision Maurice W. Smith will receive a handsome $10 pen which was offered as the first prize. The second prize was won by Harvey Stevens and is a pen valued at $5. The majority of the essays entered for the competition were well written and were a credit to the young students who wrote them.

Broke His Right Arm.

While playing in the yard last evening about eight o'clock Harley Badger, the five year old son of City Clerk and Mrs. Arthur E. Badger, was turning somersaults when he fell, breaking his right arm just below the elbow. Both bones of the forearm were broken and the fracture was reduced by Dr. R. W. Edden. The painful accident and the loss of the use of his arm for several weeks will be hard for such an active little fellow as Master Badger to bear. About a year ago his little sister fell from the porch where she was playing and broke her arm.

A STEADY INCOME ASSURED

Mexican Plantation Company Are Doing Thriving Business Here.

We are always glad when a new business enters our city which is of benefit to those who work, and who wish to save and invest in such a manner as to secure a steady and sure income to take some of the strain from their muscles and nerves. Merrick & Hudson seem to be representing such a proposition under the name of the Mexican Plantation Co. of Philadelphia, Pa. They have been investigated, and their business and all come very highly recommended. The company is an association, in which each member has one vote in the business meetings; regardless of the number of shares he may hold. It is purely co-operative, and as their products will be chiefly rubber and vanilla, there is no doubt as to the profitability of the investment. Call at their office, No. 329 31 Hayes block and see what they have to say about it.

In the Municipal Court.

James Condon, who conducts a saloon at 412 Pleasant street, was before the municipal court this afternoon on the charge of being drunk and disorderly. Condon has been drinking for some time, and while under the influence of liquor he abused his wife and made himself obnoxious to his neighbors. His wife complained to Chief Hogan and wanted him arrested. When the chief went after him this morning his wife tried to keep him from taking Condon to the lock-up and succeeded in pulling the sleeve out of the chief's coat. Condon finished the job when he was put in the lock-up by tearing the coat in half, which will necessitate the chief's getting a new coat. Condon pleaded guilty to the charge of being drunk and disorderly and was punished by a fine of $5 and costs or $6 in all or twelve days in jail. His fine was paid by his wife.

He was given a fine of $5 and costs in all $7.70 or 15 days in jail. His wife also paid this fine. Chief Hogan and Officer Brown arrested a lot of boys last night for going swimming near the railroad bridge without proper clothing. There was only one who did not have on trunks. He was fined $1 and costs, in all $3.45, which he paid. Boys who go in swimming without being properly clothed may expect to get into trouble.

Possible Clue to John Nicholson's Whereabouts.
By means of a telephone message from the Janesville Barb Wire Co., we learn that there was at one time a man by that name in their employ. As Mr. Nicholson was a machinist when insured, this is probably the man that the ETNA LIFE is waiting to pay an endowment to. His exact location at the present time is uncertain. CLINTON.

Clinton, July 1.—The social event of the season occurred Thursday evening, June 27, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jones, when Miss Mary Jones and Mr. James Penn were united in holy wedlock.

By eight o'clock two hundred guests had assembled. To the majestic strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mr. W. E. Jones, brother of the bride.

The happy couple entered the parlor unattended and with a brief service conducted by Rev. Wm. Moore, pastor of the Congregational church, they were pronounced husband and wife, during which soft strains of piano music were heard. Hearty congratulations followed, after which cake and ice cream were served the guests in the dining room. Vocal and instrumental music was enjoyed by all. Miss Lee, of Stoughton, delighting the company with two vocal selections.

The display of presents in the library was elegant, showing the esteem in which the bride is held by her friends. She is a young lady with many accomplishments and a rich soprano voice. She graduated from Milton college after attending the Clinton High school. She has made a successful teacher, being at Stoughton for the past two years.

The groom, although a stranger, at once won the admiration of the company by his genial, gentlemanly address. He occupies the position of superintendent of schools in Green county and all counted him worthy of the fair one he had won. Their future home will be at Monroe, where the best wishes of a host of friends will follow them.

Those present from abroad were Mrs. Dr. W. H. Hurlburt, Miss Dora Hurlburt, Miss Marie Sprague, Elkhorn, Wis.; Mrs. Geo. Tuttle and son, Charles, Madison, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hunt, Miss Eldora Penn, Mr. Clay Penn, Twin Grove, Wis.; Geo. W. Rankin, Muscoda; W. W. Guy S. Woolston was born in Clinton, Dec. 18, 1869. After attending school here he went to Chicago and attended a business college. In 1894 he was married to Miss May Crowther, and resided on a farm near the village for two years. He then entered the employ of the American Express Co. in Chicago; recently he had received a promotion in the Pacific Express Co. and was a young man of industrious habits. He leaves to sadly mourn his loss the young wife, two children, and father, mother, three sisters and two brothers, who have the tender sympathy of many friends in this sad affliction.

After the news of the death of Mr. Guy Woolston, of Chicago, last Tuesday, friends anxiously awaited the arrival of the details concerning his death. On Tuesday morning, when taking the train as usual, on the Pacific express at Clarkdale, where he was able to do part of his work on the way to the city, he attempted to step onto the train in motion. The engine being disabled the engineer pulled through the station without coming to a full stop, which is against the rule, as the conductor is expected to register at the station. Not getting a firm hold Mr. Woolston was thrown from the car, under the train, and seven cars passed over his limbs and one arm. He was taken to the city, but died before reaching the hospital.

His father went from here immediately on hearing of the accident, returning with the remains, accompanied by the sorrowing wife and children, on Thursday. At the depot they were met by many of their friends, when they drove direct to the cemetery, where a short service was held by Rev. Wm. Moore. The song service was rendered by Mrs. Dickerman, Miss Moore, Mr. S. S. Jones and Mr. Olds. Mrs. R. J. Van Velzah, a sister, also came out from Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Chilcott and daughter, of Beloit, were in attendance at the funeral.

In 1849 he came west, and with the exception of the first year, which he spent at Clinton Corners, this has been his home. With Mr. Wm. Snyder, he in 1857 opened the first store in the village. Nighttime Steals Wheelmen.

Peterson, N. J., July 2.—Louis Dardoni, a bicyclist, was riding last night without a lamp on his wheel. Policeman McGrath called to him to halt. Dardoni replied saucily and McGrath threw his night stick with accurate aim, knocking the wheelman off his seat. He was quite badly injured.

World's Target Record.

Cheyenne, Wyo., July 2.—Pete Bergerson, in the regular shoot of the Cheyenne Rifle club, broke the world's record for standard targets at 200 yards, scoring 98 out of a possible 100. The record is official and will be recognized. Bergerson held the previous record of 97 points. His latest score was made with ordinary peep sights.

Bring Gold from Klondike.

Seattle, Wash., July 2.—The steamship Victorian has arrived from Skagway with seventy-five Dawsonites and between $800,000 and $1,000,000 in gold, part of the spring cleanup in the Klondike district. Of the gold $60,000 was consigned to the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

The Jolly Girl
Often changes to the jaded woman. "I can't see what's come over Mary; she used to be such a jolly girl," was the remark of a young woman visiting a married schoolmate. Marriage changes a woman. The drains and pains which are so often the sequence of marriage rob her of all vitality. Give her back her former strength and she'll be as "jolly" as she was a maid. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription gives back the lost strength by re-establishing the health of the delicate womanly organs. It dries the drains and stops the pains. It cures ulceration, inflammation and female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"For two years I had been a sufferer from chronic diseases and female weakness," writes Mrs. Allen A. Bobson, of 1125 Rodman Street, Philadelphia, Pa. "I had two different doctors, and they gave me medicine which only relieved my pain temporarily. I heard about Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I concluded that to open a correspondence with you for your advice would be safest, so I did, and have been highly benefited. I find that after taking six bottles of Favorite Prescription five or six days apart, I recover very rapidly. In your advice in regard to long treatment, I am now a strong woman. Accept my sincere thanks for the interest manifested in my case and the happy results obtained."

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. Correspondence private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

France's Grain Crop Short.

A Paris dispatch to the New York Herald says that Secretary Green of the American Chamber of Commerce has prepared a report on the grain crop of France, which shows that there will be a shortage of nearly 38,000,000 bushels of wheat. France will have to buy American wheat to supply the deficit.

Saint Waists "Go" in Omaha.

By preconcerted action the clergymen of Omaha announced Sunday morning that shirt waists would be acceptable in their sight as a garment in which to worship. With the thermometer in the neighborhood of 100 degrees, as it stood Sunday, it is the opinion of the ministerial union that churchgoers should not be compelled to appear in starched shirts and sober black raiment.

In More Proof of Merit Necessary?

Danderine produces a silvery softness, growth and luster of the hair that youth itself cannot equal. We guarantee that one 25c. bottle of it will produce more genuine results than galvanic or the various mixtures called dandruff cures and hair tonics with which the market is now flooded. Danderine is highly endorsed and recommended by some of the best-known people in the United States, and its sale is ten times larger than all other hair tonics combined, which any druggist will verify. Any druggist in the entire country will return the full price if it is not found exactly as represented. Danderine is guaranteed not to shrink the hair, nor to injure the scalp. TO WAGE MIMIC WAR.

North Atlantic Squadron Will Have a Sham Battle.

New York, July 2.—The sham battle and naval maneuvers of the North Atlantic squadron in Vineyard sound next Friday and Saturday will be nearly as extensive as those off Newport last September, says a Herald dispatch from Newport, R. I. The battleground was selected by Rear Admiral Francis J. Higgins, commander-in-chief of the North Atlantic squadron, and Captain French E. Chadwick, president of the naval war college, a month ago.

Woods Hole will be the objective point, and Newport the base of supplies. The flagship Kearsarge, the battleships Alabama and Massachusetts and the torpedo boat Bailey will participate. The squadron will sail from Newport on Friday morning and will steam at once for Woods Hole. Naval defense mines will be supplied to the ships from the torpedo station and tents from the naval department.

The Kearsarge and Alabama will each land at Woods Hole one 5-inch breech-loading rifle, and the Alabama will lay six naval defense mines. The Massachusetts will land two torpedo chutes, two 3-pounders, and two 6-pounders, and will plant four naval defense mines.

Marines of the Kearsarge and Alabama will be put ashore under command of Maj. C. A. Doyen, fleet marine officer. This equipment and this force attack the fleet at night.

After a sham battle and the passing of the mines by the fleet, the offensive force will be landed from the ships and will capture the place. The sham battle is calculated to give every opportunity for mining, countermining, signaling and landing men by night and day, and all tactics that actual conflict would afford. The Bailey will attack the fleet at night.

Details of the expedition and maneuvers have been prepared under the supervision of Rear Admiral Francis J. Higgins.

Sue Relief Association.

Bristol, Tenn., July 2.—A bill has been filed in the Chancery Court at Elizabethtown against the Elizabethtown Flood Relief association charging the association with breach of trust in the misapplication of funds. It is said the association voted an appropriation of several hundred dollars for building dams and bridges at Elizabethtown. The bill charges that this is foreign to the purpose for which the money was sent to Elizabethtown and asks that the association be enjoined from so using the money.

Miss Julian Weds C. G. Ball.

New York, July 2.—At St. James' Episcopal church in Bensonhurst, Miss Theo Julian, a sister of Mrs. Robert Fitzsimmons, was married to Clarke G. Ball of Chicago. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles E. Benedict, pastor of the church. The bride was given away by her brother, Martin Julian. Mrs. Fitzsimmons acted as matron of honor and William G. Morrissey was best man. Miss Amie Julian, a sister of the bride, was flower girl and little Rob Fitzsimmons was page.

Repairing a Tunnel Break.

Baltimore, Md., July 2.—An army of workmen is still engaged in clearing the tracks in the Pennsylvania Company's Union tunnel in this city, which collapsed Saturday morning. It is expected that traffic will be resumed on Wednesday. The Baltimore and Ohio tunnel through the city is being used by the Pennsylvania trains in the meantime. Weeks will be required for a thorough reconstruction of the fallen archway. The cause of the accident is yet a mystery.

Rules on Tobacco Storage.

Washington, July 2.—In response to inquiry from Collector Hertz of Chicago Commissioner of Internal Revenue Yerkes rules that manufacturers of tobacco are not permitted to store leaf tobacco outside of the building premises unless compelled to do so because of increase in business or because contemplated changes in factory premises make temporary outside storage necessary.

Many Priests at Notre Dame.

Boy Murders a Woman.
Muncie, Ind., July 2.—Mrs. Harry McCall, 19 years old, was shot and instantly killed by Walter Driscoll, aged 17. The murder was committed in the home of young Driscoll. He disappeared after killing the woman, but was captured later. He said he got into a quarrel with the woman, procured a revolver and threatened to shoot her. She dared him to shoot, so he says, and he fired. The bullet entered her forehead and she fell dead at his feet.

A Baby's Birth

is very much like the blossoming of a flower. Its beauty and perfection depends entirely upon the care bestowed upon its parent. Expectant mothers should have the tenderest care. They should be spared all worry and anxiety. They should eat plenty of good nourishing food and take gentle exercises. This will go a long way toward preserving their health and their beauty as well as that of the little one to come. But to be absolutely sure of a short and painless labor they should use regularly during the months of gestation. This is a simple liniment which is to be applied externally. It gives strength and vigor to the muscles and prevents all of the discomforts of pregnancy which women used to think were absolute necessities. When Mother's Friend is used there is no danger whatever.
